

Body Of Sopa Tulku Who Self-Immolated in Golok Area Of Amdo Occupied Tibet On January 8 2012

“I am self-immolating to commemorate the Tibetans who have self-immolated since 2009; for our national freedom and religious freedom, for liberty and freedom of speech. I am not self-immolating for my personal interests, but Tibetan people need to live a long life for Dalai Lama. Tibetan people need to unity, work hard for the future of Tibet. Don’t lose hope, there will be a happy day.”

Political testimony of Sopa Tulku distributed prior to his sacrifice
