

WAR MAP OF ATLANTIC OCEAN AREA EURASIA AND AFRICA

Scale: One Inch = 660 Miles
Statute Miles
Nautical Miles
The Scale is true on all meridians and on parallels ten and fifty of north latitude.
Copyright by Rand McNally & Company, Chicago.

- Occupied by Allies
- Occupied by Axis
- Allied Bases or Stations
- Axis Bases or Stations
- Neutral or Non-Belligerent Bases
- Lend-Lease Routes
- Air Distances
- S. S. Distances

In the interest of National defense, certain vital military establishments have been omitted from these maps.

Fleet operating as complete units cannot safely choose to battle over 2,500 miles from a naval operating base without dangerously extending their supply lines and risking fuel shortages and lack of major repair facilities.

(Status 5 weeks after U.S. entered the war)

